CONVENTION SCHEDULE

To All Omega Phi Alpha Sisters:

Alpha chapter's convention plans are underway here at Bowling Green State University, and do we have an exciting week planned for all! I know many of you are anxious to hear about the plans for Omega Phi Alpha's 20th birthday celebration, so here is a general itinerary for you to look at.

The dates for convention are August 4 through August 8. Tuesday night we have a poolside barbeque planned to welcome everyone and let you get acquainted. This will be held in BGSU's very own recreation center, and you can count on there being lots of food and fun for all.

Wednesday, there will be a *M*A*S*H* party held at the famous Tony Paco's restaurant in Toledo (Klinger's favorite). Make sure to bring a costume for the *M*A*S*H* theme, and get ready for a night you won't soon forget.

Thursday will be designated "fun day," which will be held at the Amusement Park-CEDAR POINT!! We will spend the entire day there, so you'll have plenty of time to ride all the rides you want. The cost will be $15.00 per person, plus money for food and extras (souvenirs, games, etc...). This will not be included in the package price for convention, so come prepared to have a great day.

Finally, the Omega Phi Alpha awards banquet and ceremony will take place on Saturday evening at the Sheraton-Westgate Hotel in Toledo. The food will be first-rate along with the atmosphere and company. Also, throughout the week there will be various meetings and workshops put on by National for all to participate in.

Just as a reminder, don't forget to start planning a craft that your chapter can make to sell at the Rose Shop that will be open during convention. You will be receiving more information about this later, but it may help to begin thinking about it now.

The cost for the week for every participant will be $125.00. Everyone will have until May 15 to get the first half of the payment sent in ($60.00). The rest ($65.00) can be sent anytime after this date or upon arrival at the convention in August. Make checks payable to Omega Phi Alpha and send the payments to:

Sandy Dilger

17821 Brysdale Avenue
Cleveland, OH 44135

Also included in this letter is a travel questionnaire which needs to be filled out and sent along with your first payment. Please complete all the information as fully as possible before sending it back to us so we can plan accordingly. If for some reason you are unable to complete all of the information when the first payment is due, be sure to send the questionnaire as soon as possible after that date.

All of Alpha chapter here at BGSU are very excited about convention '87, and we hope all of you will be able to attend. We will keep you posted on convention happenings as more plans are made and things fall into place.

If for any reason you need to contact me or have any questions, feel free to write or call me. My address and telephone number are listed below. I'm looking forward to hearing from you.

Who Am I

Am I an active member,
The kind who would be missed,
Or am I just contented
That my name is on the list?

Do I attend the meetings
And mingle with the flock,
Or do I stay at home
And criticize and mock?

Do I take an active part
To help the work along,

Or am I satisfied to be
The kind that just belongs?

Do I push the cause along
And make things really tick,
Or leave the work to just a few
And talk about the "clique"?

Thank this over, each of us—
We all know right from wrong.
Am I an active member
Or do I just belong?

Convention Jungle

(To the tune of Armour Hot Dogs)
Convention, yes convention.
What kinds of girls go to convention?
Tough girls, sissy girls,
girls who study books,
Flat girls, skinny girls,
even girls with gorgeous looks.
Convention, yes convention.
The word we love to hear!

America's Homeless:

More Than Just a Project

By Ginger McGarity
Editor

Has your chapter been participating in projects to benefit the homeless this year? It's more than just the national president's project for this year; it's a national tragedy that we all need to think about and work towards solving.

This story recently appeared in the Wall Street Journal. I think it will shock you....

"One day last winter, a new neighbor appeared at a busy street corner in the affluent neighborhood of Lincoln Park (Chicago). The man sat down on a bus-stop bench, folded his hands and hunched his head, and there he remained, in the worst rains and bitterest cold.

"Whatever brought the homeless old man to that particular bench at Clark Street and Deming Place, he wouldn't say. He talked to almost no one, and he refused spare change or offers of help. He just sat, filthy and disheveled, day after day, stirring community unease and resentment.

"He told a priest his name was

Jim, but in his tattered ponch and gray beard, he looked more like an unwashed Moses. He warily guarded his piles of junk, stacked beside him in rusted shopping carts. To residents of his fashionable neighborhood, he was an eyesore who tested compassion, and prompted frequent complaints to the police.

"Even on subzero days, Jim was seldom invited into nearby stores; shopkeepers said his odor drove customers away. He shocked passers-by by urinating into plastic antifreeze jugs that he pulled under his poncho. And he infuriated many bridal parties by showing up uninvited for weddings at a nearby church.

The article continues in this vein, chronicling many residents' attempts to dislodge Jim from his "home," describing his regular attendance at a nearby Catholic church. He once told a priest that he was of German descent and carried an ice pick under his poncho for protection. That was all anyone knew about him, but that was far more than neighbors wanted to know. The residents of this affluent, yuppie neighborhood were outraged by his mere presence, and considered him a public nuisance to be gotten rid of, but were human enough to feel occasional twinges of guilt for this cold, indifferent behavior towards him.

Sadly enough, this is all too often the way our homeless are treated today, like so much garbage to be swept out of sight so we can go on with our own lives without having to feel guilty over someone's obvious misfortunes.

Even with all of our sisters across the country working together to help solve this problem, realistically we won't even put a dent in the hordes of homeless and their plight. But keep this in mind, sisters. If we save one person from freezing to death, if we feed a handful of people a hot meal someday, if we help one other human being regain his dignity, we have made a substantial contribution.

Keep up the good work.

Birthday Celebration to Include Chevron Jewelry

By Ginger McGarity
Editor

The national organization has come across a great to celebrate our 20th birthday. Roxy, Ltd., a fashion jewelry wholesaler in Connecticut, has offered a beautiful set of chevron shaped jewelry to our sisters for sale at only $25!

Pictures don't do the set justice, so use your imagination when looking at the photo on this page. The set usually retails between $42.00 and $50.00, but the owners of Roxy, Ltd, Roxy Terzian and Carmen J. Cartiglia, are specially affiliated with Omega Phi Alpha through the late Susan Terzian, and are offering this set to us at below their normal whole price of $29.00.

The four piece set, made up of a necklace, bracelet, and earrings are made of the finest Austrian Crystal, and they are all gold or silver plated. All of the stones have an authentic fire and sparkle that would make a beautiful gift for a chapter office, a best active, or a favorite NEB Liaison. They would make an even better gift for yourself!

Right now, the pieces are being sold as a set, but if enough interest is shown in individual pieces, we may be able to break up the sets. Let Pam McCullough know right away if you are interested in ordering some.

They really are beautiful, and as Pam says, "As we approach our 20th anniversary, I think that the chevron jewelry set will increase our awareness of who we are and what our principles are."

Omega Phi Alpha Wants You!!

Omega Phi Alpha National Officer Elections

What offices are open?

The following offices will be up for election at Convention '87:

- President
- Membership Director
- Treasurer
- Alumnae Administrator (1 year)
- Publications Editor
- 2 Positions on the NAA Board of Directors
- Expansions Director (1 year)

Every office has two year terms. President, Treasurer, Publications Editor and Membership Director are elected in odd-numbered years. Vice President, Executive Secretary, Alumnae Administrator, and Expansions Director are elected in even-numbered years. Two NAA directors are elected every year.

This year, Alumnae Administrator Leanne Wells was unable to complete her term. Expansions Director Terry Beebe was appointed to serve as Alumnae Administrator, in addition to her current office, until elections. Terry has announced that she would like to finish the remaining year of office for Alumnae Administrator and plans to run for the office. Both the Expansions Director and Alumnae Administrator positions, therefore, will be available to candidates interested in completing the current office terms.

Who can run for office?

Any active member of a chapter and any active alumnae.

However:

1. Candidates for National President must have served for one year as a member of the National Executive Board.
2. Candidates for National Alumnae Administrator must be an active alumnae.
3. All candidates for National Office must have been an active of the sorority for a period of one year after their activation date.

4. Any member of the National Executive Board who is not an active member must be a lifetime member of the National Alumnae Association.

How do I run for office?

You should send in a Petition for National Office to Executive Secretary Sally Craddock by May 15, approximately three months prior to convention. This shows serious forethought and your name and desired office can be published in the summer Chevron.

During the first day of business meetings at Convention, nominations are opened to the floor, and petitions can also be submitted at that time. Each nomination requires the acceptance by the nominee and a second.

When? Where?

Elections will be held at Summer Convention at Bowling Green on August 7. You do not have to be there in person, but it would probably help your campaign if you are.

Why would I want to run for office?

So you can continue to enjoy the sisterhood of your sorority while playing an active role in supporting the cardinal principles of Friendship, Leadership, and Service!

If you have anymore questions:

Consult Article V of the OPA National Constitution and the section on Conventions in the National Handbook (Section VI, p. 7)

Delta

The girls in Aggieland got off to a great start! We kicked it off with a weekend "Getaway to the Galleria" in Houston. A very special alum, Mary Morrison, donated her apartment and we participated in fellowship activities. Sally Craddock, another alum, lead us in an "OPA Burnout—Symptoms and Solutions" workshop. We wrapped up the weekend by serving lunch to the homeless at a local shelter. After participating, Delta members realized how worthwhile

Georgia Tech Colony

What a tough job it is to plan enough service projects for 10 busy individuals to each participate in at least five of them!!! But we think it will be well worth it when we gain active chapter status, and are inducted as Omega Phi Alpha's "Nu" chapter! We're counting the days, and the service hours!

So far, we've been working our fingers to the bone, so to speak. We're continuing our "on call" volunteer work at the women's shelter, and have also started a girl's club at a nearby housing project. The girls have no role models and very little to do with their time, and so most of them eventually wind up getting pregnant or involved with drugs by the time they're teenagers and never make it out of the projects they grew up in. Hopefully, some of the young girls in the University/John Hope public housing project will recognize the alternatives available to them and will strive for something more than a life on welfare. Anyway, that's our goal.

We also spent a Saturday morning sorting and matching shoes for a different nearby housing project. (Yes, Atlanta is full of them.) Faced with literally hundreds of pairs of unmatched shoes, we dug in and found mates for several hours. The shoes had been donated by various individuals to be distributed and important this cause is. In March we'll be coordinating a clothes drive for the homeless in conjunction with the local McDonald's church groups, and local radio stations. It will be big!

Delta Chapter participated in an All-Nite Fair and had a "Quarters Booth" where players bounce a quarter into a shot glass to try to win prizes. We had lots of fun and made big bucks! Fundraising is off to a good start! We're looking forward to service projects such as the Bi-annual Blood Drive, Special Olympics, a project for abused women and children, visiting a local retirement center, and hosting a party for Head Start children. We're also having a first-ever Spring Style Show, our annual luau with a local fraternity, a slumber party, and a Spring Semi-Formal!

Delta is also proud to welcome 18 pledges this semester. They're a wonderful group of energetic and enthusiastic people! Our activation ceremony and banquet will be on May 3rd.

Delta congratulates the other chapters on their successes and wishes them the best of luck in their upcoming endeavors.

among the residents. It was grimy work, but fun in a way.

We recently engaged in our first ever fundraising effort. (We got the convention letter from Alpha and started questioning how we would be able to send delegates to convention with very little $$ in our treasury!) We're proud to say that we cleared $57.50 from our doughnut sale. A few more doughnut sales would pay for two delegate's convention fees!

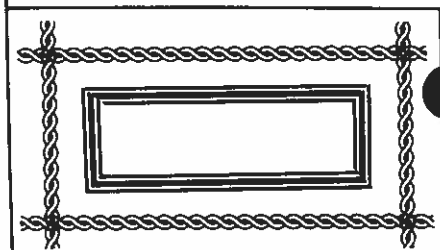

We're on very good terms with Georgia Tech's APO chapter, and they are being very supportive of all our efforts. They even recommend us as helpers to other groups looking for extra hands, because they know of our need for numerous quick service projects. One of the Greek fraternities

Kappa

Kappa Chapter is doing things again! They have one pledge this semester, Connie Greathouse, who is a super addition to the crew down at Capital.

March 7 was their traditional pledge party, and March 14 was Greek Sing. Several members from Alpha joined Kappa, along with National President Alicia Allen for the event. Activation was the very next day, March 15.

During the school term they have also been involved in a "Switch Day" with APO, a mascot day, several lil sis days including two innders, a bilg-lil switch day, and much more. It's a long, slow climb for them back to their former active chapter visibility on their campus, but they're getting there. Any suggestions would be welcome!

called us recently to ask if we would help with their annual health fair in the Student Center. We did and had a great time, and, hopefully, got a little more exposure on campus.

We're also saving Del Monte labels. Del Monte has a promotion right now wherein they will donate money to Farm Aid for each label sent back to them. Join us in clipping labels.

But all work and no plays makes Georgia Tech a dull colony! In addition to our quarter sojourn to Bennigans to eat, drink and be merry, we are also planning a VCR party.

We're grateful to Delta for sending us that big packet of PMA letters and appreciate Terry's constant communications, but are beginning to wonder if anyone else exists out there. Please drop us a note to say hi, so we can get to know the rest of our sisters!

Is Active/Inactive Enough For a Growing Sorority?

By Pam McCullough
National Treasurer

Several chapters have recently asked about the possibility of a new membership status recognized on a National level. Currently there are two statuses: active and inactive, defined in the constitution. The by-laws add another status: semi-active. However, there is a lot of confusion since several chapters also recognize as associate status. In addition, Delta has requested a status for sisters who are active on a local level but not on the national level. To further confuse the issue, we sometimes refer to "neophytes" when we are speaking of a sister who has not yet met all the qualifications for active membership. And then, of course, there are the pledges, who also have not yet completed all national qualifications for active membership.

I hope that every chapter will give some serious thought to this matter. With constitutional revisions up at convention, this will be a perfect time to add additional statuses to the constitution. When reviewing national statuses, however, keep in mind that the national constitution cannot distinguish between active/inactive status on the local level if the sister chooses not to be active on the national level. If a sister is not active by national standards, then she is inactive. Different levels of active participation can be redefined in any of a number of ways. I recommend the following:

Active—To be eligible for active membership a student must be duly enrolled in the college or university in which the chapter is located. Active membership shall be granted to those students having completed the National pledge requirements as prescribed by the National By-Laws (Art III, Sect 1 & 2 of the constitution). Active members shall have the power to vote, decide chapter questions, to be delegates to convention, to hold office, to have a little sister, and to participate in chapter functions, both service and social. (Art III, Sect 1 of the by-laws).

Associate—An associate member shall be a member in good standing with the chapter who meets all national requirements as well as those local requirements as defined by the individual chapter.

Semi-Active—Delete all reference to this status from the constitution and by-laws.

Pledge—A pledge member shall be a student in the process of fulfilling requirements to become an active member. Until all requirements, both local and National, are fulfilled, the student would be considered a pledge. (Art III, Section 3 of the constitution).

Inactive—An inactive in good standing shall have no rights other than those expressly given to them by the chapter. An inactive in poor standing shall be denied these rights (Art III, Sections 2 & 3 of the constitution).

Lifetime—Lifetime membership shall be granted to any member who pays a fee as prescribed by the National Alumnae Association (Art III, Sect 4 of the constitution).

Please discuss this issue with your chapter sisters and let me know if you have any ideas for membership status. Send all replies to: Pamela McCullough, 402 Terry Place, Hermitage, TN 37076.

Keep Those Sisters Involved

By Jan Becker
Delta Sister

Keeping active members active can be difficult sometimes, especially when test hit and homework starts to pile up! It's times like these when the friendship part of OPA can really help morale and attendance at projects.

Forming a membership is a great way to focus on friendship. Delta's membership committee is made up of nine super-enthusiastic sisters who meet twice a month at a fun place (like the ice cream parlour across the street from campus) and plan activities to get everyone together on an informal basis. Some of the activities in the works are an OPA VCR/slumber party, another round of lunch buddies, and a parent's weekend barbeque.

Sometimes, like "pick me ups" can do the trick. Delta's sunshine girl, Pam Polk, is always coming up with unique ways to make the meetings more fun. With the help of Publicity Chairwoman Tina Elliott, Pam staged a baby picture contest. It's amazing how OPA sisters all looked the same when they were little! Birthdays are fun to celebrate every month, too. And, to wish everyone good luck on their test last semester, a secret Ophia sent postcards to everyone's mailbox! There are even plans in the works to change the location of the meeting one night!

So, if attendance dwindles, don't despair. Just get creative, change the pace a little, and focus in on friendship. Your time and efforts won't be wasted!
